

ROUND 2

Are you ready for the stomach-stuffing and gratefulness that comes with Thanksgiving? Have fun trying to answer these questions about the big holiday!

1. True or False: Turkeys are closely related genetically to turkey vultures.

Answer: FALSE – Although they are both birds, they are not at all alike.

2. True or False: The majority of the Pilgrims who came to America in the 17th century were Catholics.

Answer: FALSE – They were of a Christian order called the Separatists.

3. In 2009, what politician spawned a viral video by talking about pardoning a turkey while another was slaughtered behind her on camera?

Answer: Sarah Palin

4. True or False: Both male and female turkeys have wattles (big, bumpy, red chin sacs).

Answer: TRUE

5. What female singer-songwriter featured the hit song “Thank You” on her 2001 album, No Angel?

Answer: Dido

6. Who starred in the 2005 film, “Thank You for Smoking”?

Answer: A. Brad Pitt B. Denzel Washington C. Aaron Eckhart D. Daniel Radcliffe

7. Who invented the popular Thanksgiving dish of green bean casserole?

Answer: A. Campbell’s Soup B. Betty Crocker C. Martha Stewart D. George Washington Carver

8. True or False: Female wild turkeys are called gobblers.

Answer: FALSE – Males are gobblers, females are hens.

9. True or False: The difference between sweet potatoes and yams is that yams are native to Africa and sweet potatoes are native to South America.

Answer: TRUE

10. What modern-day state did the Pilgrims’ first Thanksgiving take place in?

Answer: Massachusetts